XLVIII. CONGRESS.

Second Session.

MONDAY, Jan. 5.—In the Senate bills were introduced to create a revenue commission and to amend the several statutes relative to the lease of Indian lands. The Interstate Commerce bill was considered. In the House a motion to suspend the rules and pass the bills to abolish the internal revenue tax on tobacco and fruit liquors was defeated. Bills were introduced to increase the number of judges of the United States Courts; to provide for the issue of one, two and five dollar silver certificates; to grant copyrights to citizens of foreign countries, and to throw open for occupancy the mineral lands situated on the Indian reservations. A motion to fix a day to consider the Senate Bankrupt bill was lost by 155 to 75 to 55—not the necessary two-thirds in the affirmative.

TUESDAY, Jan. 6.—In the Senate Mr. Hawley introduced a bill to establish international copyright. The Oregon Central Land-Grant bill was passed. In the House a resolution was passed appropriating $50,000 for the support of Indians in Montana. The Pension bill, appropriating $65,000,000, was debated and passed.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 7.—A resolution was passed in the Senate, appropriating $50,000 to relieve the sufferings of destitute Indians. Mr. Pinchot presented a petition from the Indians, soldiers, protecting against their removal from their lands, and praying Congress to withdraw the military forces and organize the Territories of Oklahoma into States. A long debate on the Inter-State Commerce bill followed. In the House a motion to strike from the Inter-State Commerce bill the section prohibiting railroads from charging more for a short than a long haul was voted down. An amendment was adopted giving Federal courts power to issue writs of mandamus compelling railroad companies to forward freight.

THURSDAY, Jan. 8.—The time of the Senate was occupied in a debate upon the bill concerning the fees of pension claim agents and the policy of attacking pensioners, which was still in joint committee.

In Ohio there were 27,133 marriages last year, 15,000 births, 1,720 divorces and 24,662 deaths.

Messages from Governor Bogoleo and Alger.

The Financial Condition of the State is to be Altogether Satisfactory. Recommendations by the Outgoing and Incoming Officials.

Governor Bogoleo delivered his message to the Legislature on the evening of the 1st of January. He reported the financial condition of the State as most satisfactory, there being in the Treasury an balance of $1,623,000, with every indebtedness of the State provided for; the balance in the building fund being more than enough to pay all bonded indebtedness which, unfortunately, was not due until 1890.

The outgoing and incoming officials joined with the Treasurer in recommending that the law be amended so that the Primary school building fund, now paid by the Treasurer in May, be made payable semi-annually, in May and November. It will prevent the treasury holding a large sum of money for seven or eight months, and be more convenient for the school districts concerned.

In his message two years ago says: "Governor I called the attention of the Legislature to the fact that the school debts of the State are unincurred, which, he further says, "is a sufficient guarantee of the financial stability of the State, and that the amount of education necessary to insure intelligent exercise of the elective franchise, I asked that in justice to insures the amount and which the State is bound to give citizenship, should be determined as nearly as possible, so that the school can turn out intelligent voters, who are not likely to be influenced by public bias. If high school instruction is necessary to intelligent voter, why is not the State bound to give a high school education, so that every voter may be qualified to vote intelligently? The tax rates of each school district to the city that it lies in the country, I believe, will come when this question should be
